

Brendan Lane – Chairman (2012 - present)

Brendan Lane has been the Chairman of the board of the Lime Tree Theatre since its formation as a company in 2012. Brendan was a Chartered Accountant in practice for over forty years and a Partner in KMG, Coopers & Lybrand and Grant Thornton. He was Managing Partner of the Grant Thornton Limerick office for eighteen year until his recent retirement. While in practice he specialised in share valuation, company law and governance and lectured on Business Succession.

Brendan brings an extensive knowledge of arts organisations to the board, having been the Chairman of both the Belltable Arts Centre and the University Concert Hall. He has been closely associated with the College Players for many years, both as a performer and committee member. He also served on and was Chair of the board of the Limerick Youth Service.
